This Code of Conduct outlines the expectations for behaviour to ensure everyone can thrive, both within the studio and in the wider community.

Respectful Behaviour : Treat others with respect and kindness:

All interactions—whether with fellow dancers, instructors, or parents—should be considerate, inclusive, and free from harassment, discrimination, or bullying.

Value diversity: Celebrate differences in backgrounds, abilities, and opinions, recognising that everyone contributes to the vibrancy of our community.

Listen and communicate constructively: Engage in open, honest, and respectful dialogue, especially when addressing concerns or misunderstandings.

Sportsmanship and Team Spirit Encourage and support others: Celebrate the achievements of your peers and provide constructive encouragement during practices and performances.

Be gracious in competition: Represent Studio Arc with integrity by demonstrating humility in victory and dignity in defeat.

Commit to teamwork: Show up prepared, on time, and with a positive attitude, ready to contribute to group efforts.

Safe Interactions and Practices Prioritise safety: Follow all instructions from instructors and adhere to studio rules to ensure a safe learning environment.

Maintain boundaries: Interact respectfully, avoiding any behaviour that could be perceived as inappropriate or harmful.

Report concerns: Promptly report any unsafe, inappropriate, or uncomfortable situations to a trusted instructor.

Be a responsible representative: Extend safe and respectful behaviour to interactions outside the studio, understanding that your actions reflect on Studio Arc.

Accountability Take responsibility for your actions: Acknowledge mistakes and work to make amends where necessary.

Respect the space: Help maintain a clean and organised studio by cleaning up after yourself and treating studio property with care.
